First Thursday of every month 12–7pm

Drop in, no booking necessary

21 Woodlands Terrace, Glasgow, G3 6DF

Room for Reading is an opportunity to make use of our unique library on the first Thursday of every month. Designed by artist Andrew Miller and filled with an expansive collection of art books, magazines and periodicals, the library is available for reference and research from lunchtime until late, with tea and coffee provided.

Not sure what to read? Books are suggested in conjunction with each exhibition.
